POSTED: 06/29/16, 2:25 PM EDT

Jewish Senior Life is calling for submissions of favorite recipes from local folks for consideration to be published in a forthcoming community cookbook showcasing the flavors of Detroit's Jewish community.

The cookbook will be created and designed by Jewish Senior Life and sold at its third annual Jeffrey Zaslow Media Night this coming fall. Media Night 2016 will feature Food Network star Duff Goldman, who may write an introduction to the book.

Proceeds from cookbook sales will benefit programming for older adults served by Jewish Senior Life.

Submit your favorite recipe to represent your family in this communal cookbook. Send submissions to Leslie Katz at lkatz@jslmi.org; call 248.592.5062 for information.

The submission deadline is Sept. 1.

Submissions are welcome for cover designs as well.
